WEALTH EXECUTIVE FORUM 2026

at the DoubleTree Lisle/Naperville

Starts Sunday evening, September 27th, 2026 at 6:00 p.m.

Concludes Tuesday, September 29th, 2026 at 1:15 p.m.

Could you use a “brainstorming” session with experts and peers? Do you ever wish you had someone who could be a source of new ideas? We all need inspiration, help or support somewhere along the line. This annual gathering of Wealth Management Executives is unlike any other conference you might attend.

Here's why this is the most valuable conference you'll attend this year:

- You're meeting in an informal but structured setting with colleagues from across the country.
- Everyone shares ideas and asks questions of one another. Get specific answers from people who have shared similar experiences. Find out what your peers are doing – and why.
- Share revenue, staff, profit, and growth numbers with top performing leaders.
- Take home 15 to 30 “new” ideas from the Idea Exchange.

The Key Note Speaker is Tim David. He's written several books on advanced communication strategies (including the Blinkist Top 10 Psychology Book of the Year, Magic Words.) He's traveled to 48 states and multiple countries around the world as a keynote speaker sharing his inspiring message about the magic of human connection at work and in life. His presentation will be Why the Future Belongs to the Most Human. It's not that technology is advancing too quickly. It's that human skills are advancing too slowly. There's no big mystery as to why trust, the #1 key to business, is experiencing a crisis during the artificial age. People want something REAL - and if you don't give it to them, then your competitors will. Where there is human connection, there is magic. Real magic. Productivity improves in a way that science can't explain. Innovation strikes like lightning from a clear sky. Ordinary people transform into extraordinary teams. You don't have to wait or hope, this can be built.

The “Idea Exchange” is an opportunity to interact with your peers, ask and learn from one another. Past participants agree the “take away ideas” are immediately applicable and invaluable. Group lunches and dinners sponsored by participating vendors increase the networking opportunities and the synergies!

This may be one of the best investments you make all year – only $395. Register now – mark your calendar – and look forward to an inspiring and stimulating experience. Register by mail, scan and email, fax or go online at www.pohlconsulting.com.

- “Impressive group of managers- very talented and smart. Younger managers- very sharp- great for the industry. Great sharing- everyone very open to sharing- key to success of the event.” Steven
- “The Idea Exchange provides a great forum for discussion. I always leave with lots of actionable ideas.” Kim
- “Excellent value for the cost of attendance.” Steve

See you September 27th!
